

New CEO Compass

What is it?

Our exclusive programme for new CEOs provides a supportive, structured space where first-time CEOs in the housing sector can connect, learn and grow with peers facing similar challenges.

This forum, uniquely tailored by DIN, offers new CEOs a dynamic, bespoke experience with access to high-level contributors and insights rarely available elsewhere.

We'll help equip you with the leadership capabilities, strategic foresight and resilience necessary to navigate this rapidly shifting landscape and lay a foundation of meaningful, lasting change.

What you'll gain

- Strategic foresight to lead with confidence in new, uncertain times
- Insights on governance, board relationships and inclusive leadership
- Practical tools for setting a vision and fostering a customer-focused culture
- Resilience strategies for when things don't go as planned
- Access to a network of experienced leaders and peer support.

What's on offer

- Three online sessions with experts from inside and outside the sector, who will bring insight and challenge to support your growth and the health of the organisation you lead
- One in-person event featuring peer networking and collaborative workshops
- A dedicated, active WhatsApp group for ongoing resources, support and discussion
- An opportunity to take up mentoring from an experienced in-sector colleague who's walked in your shoes.

Who it's for

This group is for first-time CEOs in social housing, ready to take on the unique challenges of their roles. It is ideal for leaders wanting to influence positive change, learn from diverse perspectives and establish a high-accountability, customer-driven culture.

Want to find out more?

Our Associate Director Helena Moore is on hand for a chat, so email her at helena.moore@disruptiveinnovatorsnetwork.co.uk